

Quality Commitment Statement

Knoxbrooke Incorporated is committed to continuous quality improvement in the provision of its services to adults with intellectual and other disabilities and its' quality management system ensures that those accessing Knoxbrooke's services have the opportunity to realise their maximum potential.

Knoxbrooke's process of continuous quality improvement in staff development and recognition is commensurate with the standards of excellence, which Knoxbrooke is committed to provide.

Knoxbrooke is committed to a thorough and regular review of its quality management system. This will include reviewing quality objectives and measures. The policy and practices of Knoxbrooke Incorporated are within the ONE DHHS STANDARDS framework and any other statutory and regulatory requirements.

Pat Dalton
Chairman, Board of Management

Kristian Dauncey
Chief Executive Officer